In a quiet position, centrally located to both Campbells Creek and Castlemaine, is this appealing 1940s home. With features of the era including hardwood floorboards, high ceilings and decorative glass French doors. Comprising: entry into the welcoming foyer with a feature porthole window, formal sitting room, two large bedrooms and a third or study all with floorboards, refurbished and modern family bathroom, all located off the central hallway which leads to the spacious, light filled open plan kitchen/dining and living area, separate powder room and laundry with direct access to the back garden.
