

72 Kennedy Street Castlemaine VIC

4 2 1

Slow down and escape the hustle and bustle by retreating to this four-bedroom, double-fronted Victorian-period cottage with an imbued sense of calm, a feeling of zen carries into the back private garden, a hidden oasis of established trees and water features.

The cottage features two front bedrooms, one with a period open fireplace and surround and a central hall leads to two further bedrooms, the main with built-in robes and an ensuite with a shower over bath, a toilet and vanity, before opening into the heart of the home. The kitchen/ dining features period cabinets, a fireplace, and a freestanding gas cooktop and adjoining this space is a laundry and a second bathroom with a shower, toilet and vanity. At the rear of the home is a magnificent spacious north and east-facing living space with double-glazed windows and bi-fold doors opening out onto the beautiful tranquil garden.
