Privacy and Space

Located within a short stroll of the thriving historic Maldon main street for cafes, retail and galleries, this three-bedroom early 1900s period home offers a country escape with privacy and space.

Complete with period charm, a bull nose verandah wraps around the house. The home has a contemporary open-plan kitchen with dining featuring a gas cooktop with an under-mount oven, a dishwasher, a walk-in pantry, a solid wood heater, an island bench for additional bar-style seating and on either side of the kitchen are two living spaces with double doors onto the verandah and deck overlooking the surrounding landscape and Beehive Diggings. The formal living leads to the main bedroom and a separate bathroom with a walk-in shower, a toilet, and a vanity, creating a private wing and parents' retreat. The
