3 2 2

Perched proudly atop Clinkers Hill, this solid brick Victorian residence (c1860s) is a Castlemaine treasure. With just two owners since it was built, this beautifully preserved three-bedroom home on 591 sqm (approx) blends historic character with contemporary updates, all in a prime in-town location.

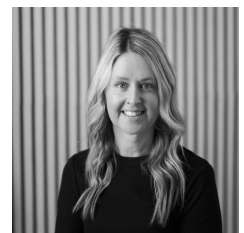

Enjoy picturesque views down Barker Street and beyond, with the charm of the historic steam train passing by, a nostalgic reminder of Castlemaine's rich heritage. Step through the north-facing front porch into the living room with a period fireplace, high ceilings, ornate plasterwork and double-hung windows. This space flows effortlessly to the dining area with direct access to the rear garden, ideal for entertaining or relaxing. The adjoining country-style
