Privately tucked behind a hedge and set on a generous 1047sqm (approx.), this cream brick classic is a rare find, offered to the market for the very first time since its completion in 1964. Beyond its retro cool aesthetic and original mid-century features, the property includes three additional self-contained units, offering incredible flexibility for multi-generational living, income generation, or work-from-home potential, all just moments from Castlemaine's vibrant town centre.
