

50 Eureka Street Chewton VIC

3 1 4

Set on approximately 2008sqm with an additional 2.6 acres (approx) of surrounding leased land, this property presents an exceptional opportunity to secure a substantial country holding in the heart of historic Chewton. With park-like gardens, bushland behind the back fence, and the Goldfields Track just steps away, the property offers a lifestyle defined by space, tranquillity, and connection to nature.

The period residence, with high ceilings, is rich in character and offers three well-sized bedrooms, two with built-in robes and one with a period feature fireplace. The home includes central ducted heating. The north-facing living room captures soft natural light throughout the day and features timber panelling and another decorative fireplace
