Positioned just 1.5km (approx) from the heart of Castlemaine, this is the kind of property that simply makes sense. Whether you are stepping onto the property ladder, looking to downsize, or searching for a sound investment, this three-bedroom period home ticks every box.

Central to the home is a generous open-plan living, dining and kitchen zone, a light-filled, welcoming space that brings the home together. The living area retains its period character with a gas wall heater set within a classic surround, complemented by a split system for year-round comfort.
