

4B Captain Day Road Campbells Creek VIC

At approximately 1722 square metres, this is a generous parcel in a part of the Mount Alexander region that has quietly earned its reputation, close enough to Castlemaine to feel connected, far enough out to feel like you've arrived somewhere of your own.

All town services are available at the boundary. The hard work of finding and servicing a site has been done. What remains is the more enjoyable work of deciding what to build on it.

Campbells Creek is eight minutes from Castlemaine's centre and well-served in its own right, primary school, café, pub, hardware store and playground all within easy reach, with the kind of unhurried streetscape that has
