

14 Church Street Chewton VIC

3 2 1

Built with care and finished with intention, this contemporary three-bedroom home sits on 525sqm (approx) in the middle of Chewton, walk to the post office, the community pool, the oval and playground, and be in Castlemaine in under seven minutes.

The floor plan is thoughtfully arranged. Towards the front, a dedicated office with double doors opens to the side garden, a quiet, separated workspace that earns its keep. Three bedrooms with reverse cycle split systems sit along the central corridor, two with built-in robes; one has its own external access. The main bedroom includes a walk-in robe and an ensuite with a stone benchtop vanity, a shower and a separate toilet. The central bathroom offers a bath, shower, vanity with stone benchtop and separate toilet, and
