

69 Molloy Lane Yandoit VIC

20.2 acres (approx.) of established farmland in the heart of the Central Highlands, set between Castlemaine and Daylesford with long views across one of the region's most compelling landscapes.

An olive grove runs across the slopes, approximately 30 years old, planted in orderly rows and well-maintained. Ornamental deciduous trees of similar age are scattered throughout, spectacular in autumn colour and clearly planted with intention. Three dams sit across the property, one substantial in size, providing real practical and visual value to the holding.

The land is open and gently rolling, with native bush fringing the boundaries and providing shelter and privacy.
